

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Superintendent John Bonaiuto, Vermillion Public Schools, has, during his four years in the district, demonstrated strong commitment to the development of the arts in education; and,

WHEREAS, John Bonaiuto has encouraged and provided support for exemplary education programs in visual art, music, drama and creative writing and has supported the arts in education as "a basic curriculum component" in Vermillion schools; and,

WHEREAS, John has been an active advocate for the arts in education in school and community and has encouraged their development as part of interdisciplinary learning; and,

WHEREAS, John has demonstrated strong leadership, good school management as well as excellent rapport with teachers, parents and students in his commitment to the arts in education; and,

WHEREAS, John has been selected as a recipient of the J. F. Kennedy Alliance for Arts Education's School Administrator award for his outstanding support of the arts in education and has, therefore, brought honor to his school district, his community, and to the state of South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 19, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join his colleagues, friends and relatives in congratulating him for this great honor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirteenth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
